SOURCE Bulgaria Libera e Indipendente [anti-Communist].REPORT FURTHER PURGES IN BULGARIAN COMMUNIST PARTY

Following the order of the Bulgarian Communist Party prohibiting Dobri Terpeshev, Minister of Labor and Social Policy, from speaking before party committees, a recent order forbids Maj Gen Dimitur Dimov to leave Sofia without a special permit from the Politburo.

The terror within the party is increasing, owing to the underfulfillment of plans, violations, thefts, etc. The wave of accusations against prominent party members is continuing. Titko Chernokolev, Minister of Agriculture, is accused of having been a police agent before 9 September 1944. The accusation states that during his internment at the Gonda Voda Camp, Chernokolev informed the camp director on his fellow internees and was rewarded by a position as camp employee. Sava Ganovski President, Commission for Science, Art, and Culture, is accused of the same offense, and Communist Professor Todor Pavlov was beaten up at the camp for his disloyal behavior with regard to fellow party members, whereas Mincho Neychev, Minister of Foreign Affairs, was employed in the parcel-distribution department in return for his servility to camp authorities.
